

My name is Yokabod Mengesha. This is a picture of me imitating the two guitarists beside me at a music convention.

This is a picture of me, my best friend, and sister at a farewell party.

I have two cats.
This one is my cat
tiger.

Then this is a picture of my cute dog
Dino.

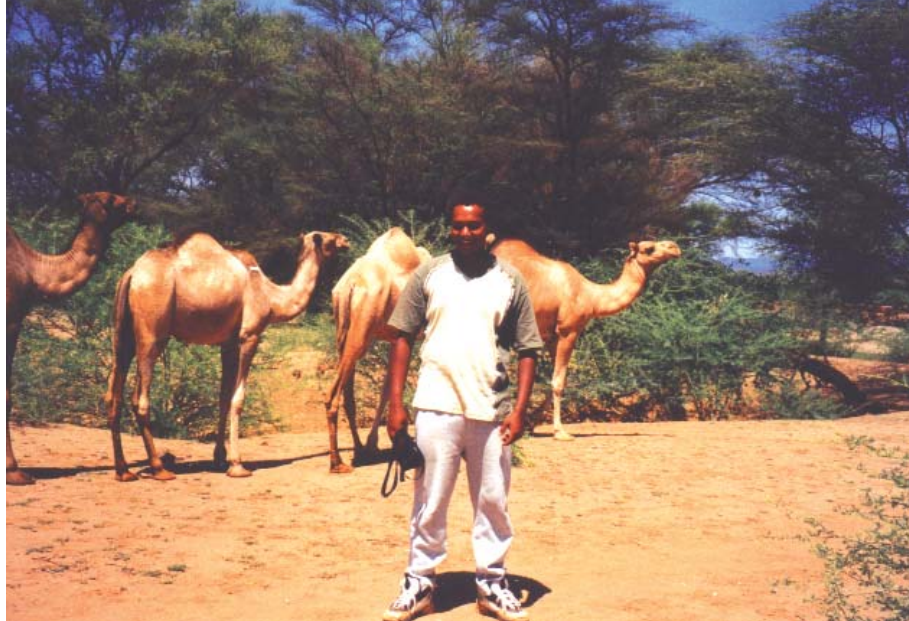

This is also a picture of my sister making a cake for my surprise birthday party - well, at least that is what she thinks.

Then this is a picture of my 15 year old brother Eyoel.

And this is a picture of his school, Baraton University.
